Criminology

Watch this YouTube video about what Criminology is. Write down 5 key points:

1
2
3
4
5

In Criminology we look at both criminal behaviour, and deviant behaviour.

Using this link, and your own research, make notes on the difference between crime and deviance with examples:

and deviance with examples.
What is a crime?
Example criminal act:
What is deviance?
·

Example deviant act:
·
Example of an act that is both criminal and deviant:

Throughout the course, we will look at campaigns that have caused a change in the law e.g., 'Sarah's Law'.

Watch the video and make notes on the crime. Research into the success of the campaign in establishing a new law.

Sarah Payne's murder:
Campaign success – a new law:
		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·

We will look at many different types of crime, such as White Collar Crimes, Moral Crimes, State Crimes, Technological Crimes, Hate Crimes, Honour Crimes and Domestic Abuse.

Choose one of these types of crimes, write a description of it and find a recent example of it in the news.

•	,	. ,
Type of crime:
Recent example:
	·		